

This document shows the pre-test data for 6th grade students, color coded by predetermined levels. Teachers then created a roster for Geometry Boot Camp based on ability groupings. Sixth grade teachers administered the pre-test, graded and recorded data, and then signed up their students for one of seven classes. This document then became the roster for each of the seven teachers. Once the post-assessment is administered, the data will be analyzed to assess growth and achievement.