Kevin was scared when he was in the giant camping tent late at night in Africa. Which evidence from the story supports this statement? Select TWO answers. *

- It took a long time before Kevin could fall asleep.
- Kevin's parents slept soundly in another bed across from Kevin.
- Kevin thought about a lion coming into their tent to attack them.
- He listened to the birds singing outside.
- His parents had explained to him that a safari was a long drive through nature, usually in Africa.

Explain how Kevin's feelings about being close to wild animals change from the beginning to the end of the story. Use evidence from the text to support your answer. *
