

Revisiting Leading a Professional Learning Community For Principals

A Professional Learning Community is an ongoing process in which educators work collaboratively in recurring cycles of collective inquiry and action research to achieve better results for the students they serve. Come join me for a few evenings of revisiting how to lead the PLC process. Some topics include:

- How to use your Mission/Vision/Collective Commitments for Recruiting and Retaining Staff
- Strengthening Intervention and Remediation through Essential Learnings and Common Formative Assessments
- Common Planning for Learning vs Common Planning for Teaching
- Grading Practices that Support Student Success

Who: Any Principal who would like to revisit fundamental practices of leading a PLC and collaborate with others on how to effectively lead in a PLC.

When:	December 8, 2020	5:00-7:00pm
	January 19, 2021	3:00-5:00pm
	February 16, 2021	5:00-7:00pm
	March 30, 2021	5:00-7:00pm

I am asking that you commit to all four sessions. Each session builds upon the previous ones.

Please only sign up if you have all 4 dates available.

Where: LRC

TNL: Course # 16606 Section #33898

Participants must register on TNL.

Please contact Emily Feltner at feltner@lake.k12.fl.us or 253-6516 with questions.

