

The LES staff discuss reading progress vertically. The collaboration is designed to develop “next steps” for all students and discuss and analyze instructional strategies as we move to increase student achievement.